

Trace over the name of the road-construction vehicle

An excavator uses the scoop attached to its front to dig large holes in the ground.

excavator

A roller is a type of heavy construction equipment used to compact and flatten soil, concrete, gravel, crushed stone or asphalt on the surface of the road.

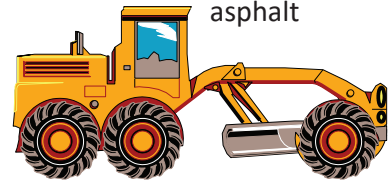

roller

A dump truck can carry large amounts of gravel, dirt, sand and other materials. The back of the truck lifts up to dump out the dirt.

dump truck

Graders are used to compact and flatten soil, concrete, gravel, crushed stone or asphalt on the surface of the road.

grader

A bulldozer is one of the best known construction vehicles. It is one of the strongest vehicles, and it's like a tractor with a huge blade on the front.

bulldozer

There are many different kinds of vehicles used in road construction. Which one is your favorite?

